

POLICEMAN RICE SHOT

Bullet from a Negro's Pistol Enters His Neck.

Went Through Two Collars and Lodged in the Skin.

Result of a Row at a Colored Gentlemen's Poker Party.

Policeman Rice, of the West Sixty-seventh street station, had a narrow escape from being badly injured this morning when a pistol was fired point blank at him by Thomas J. Daniels, at 45 West Sixty-sixth street. The bullet passed through his coat collar, but simply imbedded itself in the skin of his neck. A physician said he didn't understand why the bullet didn't enter the policeman's neck.

The shooting was the outcome of a little poker game that started at 9 o'clock last night.

Thomas J. Daniels and William Rodgers, colored waiters, live in the tenement-house at 45 West Sixty-sixth street, which is in charge of another colored man, W. C. Randolph. The men had no money, but they agreed to call off for a few days. Daniels won steadily. At 3.30 o'clock this morning he was way ahead. At that hour Rodgers got angry and grabbed a handful of chips.

There, that makes us square," he said. But Daniels didn't see it that way. Down in his hip pocket went his hand, and out came a revolver. Rodgers drew a revolver at the same moment. Then the firing began.

There is some difference of opinion as to who fired first, but at any rate persons in the house heard five shots. Rodgers ran down stairs into the rooms of Adam Mintz, on the second floor, with Daniels close after him. Mintz went to a policeman. Rodgers hid in the rear room, and bolted the door. Daniels was in a front room firing shots through the door.

Out in the street Mintz met Roundhouse.

"Say, you better go up in my house," he said; "two colored 'gents' are fighting."

The roundhouse's whistle attracted Patrolman Bellinger and the two went into the tenement.

Bellinger climbed through a rear window and arrested Rodgers, who made no resistance. Rice went after Daniels in the front of the house.

The room in which Daniels stood was dark, so when he heard the roundhouse at the door he thought it was his enemy Rodgers. He didn't say a word, but as soon as Rice opened the door he fired at him.

Rice felt the bullet, but that didn't stop him. He grappled with the negro, and the two went rolling over and over on the floor. They rolled over towards the window and the light showed Daniels the blue coat of the policeman.

"Hold on," he cried, as soon as he saw it. "You're an officer, I give up."

At the station when the roundhouse took off his coat, the bullet-hole was found. The bullet had entered the neck, also gone through his linen collar. Then the bullet was found in the skin of the roundhouse's neck, but McIntyre didn't know it and put it in an envelope for evidence.

The Yorkville Police Court Daniels was held in $1,000 bail and Rodgers in $1,000 bail for examination.

SHOT TWICE IN A SALOON.

Student Jones Wounded by McIntyre, the Proprietor.

The facts in a mysterious shooting affair which took place yesterday afternoon in the saloon of Patrick McIntyre, at 302 West Fortieth street, were only made public this morning. Robert Jones, twenty-two years old, of 274 West Thirty-eighth street, a student in a veterinary college, is the victim.

According to McIntyre, who did the shooting and has been arrested, Jones entered his saloon and asked for a drink of whiskey. He was intoxicated and McIntyre would not serve him.

The young man then picked up a heavy stone machine that stood on the bar and struck McIntyre on the head with it.

The saloon-keeper pulled out a revolver from a drawer behind the bar and shot young Jones twice. One bullet struck him in the right side of the neck. The other, he believed to have buried itself in his shoulder. McIntyre said the shooting was done in self-defense.

McIntyre said that the thirty-seventh street station heard shots when he was patrolling his post a block away. He said he rushed into the saloon and found no one there but McIntyre, who was bleeding from a wound in the head. McIntyre said he had shot a man, but he didn't know where he had gone.

The saloon-keeper was taken to the station-house and locked up.

About 10 o'clock last night Jones was taken to Bellevue Hospital in a cab by his father, Mr. McIntyre, who talked about the case. The wounds are not serious.

As soon as the police knew of Jones's arrest at the hospital he was put under arrest.

McIntyre was taken to the Jefferson Market Police Court and held without bail to await the result of Jones's injuries.

GIBBS MURDER MYSTERY.

Sensational Arrest Expected Soon in Buffalo.

(By Associated Press.) BUFFALO, May 2.—The coroner's inquest in the case of the murdered lawyer, Montgomery Gibbs, was begun today. No evidence was taken, however, and the examination of witnesses was deferred until Wednesday. It is not deemed advisable at this time to make public some of the evidence that has been obtained, lest the ends of justice may be thwarted. The police have as yet made no arrests.

There is little doubt to-day in the minds of any of the reading and thinking citizens of Buffalo that Gibbs was murdered by some person who had immediate vicinity of where the body was found, and that the motive for the crime was vengeance following swiftly upon Gibbs's attempt to pursue an intrigue with a wife or daughter.

HAD A DUMMY STORE.

Alexander Accused of Swindling Wholesale Firms.

Goods He Secured Believed to Have Been Worth $100,000.

Held for Examination on a Charge Made by Barlow.

Alexander Alexander, aged twenty-two, who describes himself as a merchant, of 107 Grand street, was arrested in the Tombs Police Court again this morning on a charge of larceny, preferred by Edward M. Barlow, the representative of Stehl & Co., manufacturers of satin at Zurich, Switzerland.

Alexander was held in $2,000 bail by Justice Taintor for examination on May 8, at 2.30 P. M. He is said to have purchased goods amounting to over $100,000 during the few weeks that he kept open his store on Grand street.

In his complaint Barlow charges that Alexander represented himself to be a merchant of standing, and bought large quantities of satin from him at different times between April 18 and 25 last. The total value of the goods thus purchased was $174,065. Credit of four months, less 7 per cent, was given Alexander told Barlow that he had given the satin to Bootlegger & Co. to have it embargoed into more silk.

On April 25 Barlow says that Alexander wanted fifty more pieces of the same material from him, and that he was unable to supply it. Inquiry concerning Alexander led him to visit the latter's place of business on April 28. He found the store locked and the goods moved away.

A local person who lived in the neighborhood were in court to testify that large truckloads of goods were moved into Alexander's store in the rear again before they had been unpacked, with a frequency to lead to much suspicion. The net of April 28 and two large truckloads of goods were moved away.

Joseph C. Leggett, credit clerk of Abegg & Rush, commission merchants at 30 to 34 Grand street, had Alexander arrested on April 28. He charged that Alexander represented himself to be worth $100,000, and between Feb. 10 and March 28 had purchased $200,000 worth of goods from the firm on credit.

There are many other victims who will make similar complaints against Alexander. One of them was made in the Tombs Court this afternoon.

MAY PREVENT THE MEETING.

Anarchist Mowbray's Welcome Will Have to Be Orderly.

The meeting that English-speaking groups of Anarchists propose to hold in the Thalia Theatre, on Sunday night, may meet with opposition on the part of the police. At all events, no incendiary speeches or any breach of the law will be permitted, says Inspector Williams.

The meeting is to be a public welcome to William Mowbray, a London Anarchist. He was once editor of "Commonwealth," an Anarchist paper of rabid type in London, and is said to have been imprisoned for an overt act in behalf of the "cause."

Mowbray is wanted here to edit a paper for the English-speaking groups who have raised passage money for himself and family. It is not known when he will be here, but it is likely that he will be prevented from landing by the immigration authorities. In case the police may send him back to Ellis Island, as he is liable to exclusion as an ex-convict.

If Mowbray is allowed to land, he will meet a throng of his admirers who will greet him by incendiary talk or writings.

WANTED BY GERMANY.

Leber is Accused of Stealing Government Money.

Frederick Wilhelm Leber, alias Carl Smith, was arrested at Richmond Roads, Staten Island, by Deputy United States Marshal Bernhard last night on complaint of August Fiegl, the German Consul.

The information on which Leber was taken into custody sets forth that he was formerly in the employ of the German Government as head book-keeper for the Chief of the City Treasury at Frankfurt-am-Main. On March 8, 1894, the head of Leber's division discovered that the accounts in the cash-book of the division were in Leber's charge, had been falsified. An investigation, it is stated, disclosed a deficiency of 1,000 marks and upward.

Leber admits that he is accused of embezzlement, but insists that a mistake has been made, and that he is innocent. Commissioner Lyman told the prisoner when he was brought before him this morning that he would appoint counsel to defend him, and adjourned the hearing.

HAD A FORGED CHECK.

Young Deloco Says a Strange Man Gave It to Him.

Fifteen-year-old Charles Deloco, of 105 Goerck street, was held by Justice Koch in the Essex Market Police Court today for trial on a charge of forgery. He presented a check for $50 at the Germania Bank, on the Bowery, yesterday, purporting to be signed by Otto Wagner, president of the Germania Bank. The signature was such a clumsy forgery that it was at once discovered. Deloco said the check was given to him by a strange man, who promised him $1 to have it cashed. The man, he said, promised him a situation as a clerk.

CLEVELAND IS UNDER ARMS.

Police and Militia Held Ready to Check Rioters.

Mob Will Not Be Allowed Any Leeway To-Day.

(By Associated Press.) CLEVELAND, May 3.—The city of Cleveland virtually rested under military protection last night. Between 800 and 900 men were sleeping at the various armories with armed sentries keeping guard, ready to arouse them at the first sound of alarm. This arrangement was made by Mayor Bile, as a precaution in case of further disorder after yesterday's rioting.

The night passed without a renewal of trouble, but the authorities fear a renewed outbreak to-day, and the entire civil and military forces will be held in readiness.

"We do not purpose to allow the rioters to obtain one moment's start of us," said Director of Police Herbert today, "and every policeman in the city will be ready to move at the first intimation of trouble."

Three of the largest motor cars were taken to the public square at daybreak, the motormen being instructed to obey the orders of the Director of Police. At 3.30 o'clock a detail of police, under Capt. Gates, was sent to Newburg, where the large iron mills are located and where disorder was threatened.

The Poles of that district held a meeting last night and early morning, the rioters being determined to make a raid on the wire mills to-day.

The military were held in readiness to go to the aid of the police, should the force be inadequate to handle the mob. In the downtown districts and throughout the city generally quiet prevailed during the night and early morning.

The rioters who composed the disorderly element live in Newburg principally. There Socialist agitators have, during the past winter, promulgated their doctrines and secured large numbers of converts.

The first report of trouble to-day was received from the Cleveland Trust Building Company, at Wagon and Hamilton streets, stating that a gang of men had attempted to break into the place and drive out the workmen. A patrol wagon loaded with officers was dispatched to the scene, but the crowd had already dispersed and disappeared.

The rioters of the district were found, and a friend were driven to the works, a volley of stones was thrown at the carriage, which was badly battered. A shot was fired from the carriage, but no one was injured. The crowd assembled about the works, comprised striking moulder and their sympathizers.

MAY END MINERS' STRIKE.

Coal Operators and Workmen Will Confer Next Week.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, May 3.—Col. W. P. Bend, who has returned from the coal fields of Pennsylvania, is hopeful that a settlement of the miners' strike will be reached at a conference to be held by representatives of both parties at Cleveland or some other eastern point early next week.

"Before I left Pittsburgh," said Mr. Bend, "a preliminary meeting to consider this subject was held between one of the officers of the Miner National Union and certain prominent mine owners. Certain operators will soon be furnishing for coal, which no longer need be concealed, while thousands of miners and their families will be furnished with food. However, no settlement will last more than three or four weeks unless one is arrived at on the lines of concession and compromise."

Strike Expected in Pittsburgh, Kan.

(By Associated Press.) PITTSBURGH, Kan., May 3.—The situation of the mine strike has assumed a more serious aspect. The miners at West Coal Company No. 2, with the exception of about thirty, refused to go to work to-day, and it was even said that they would not go back until their demand for 60 cents the year around is complied with. The Western Coal Company at Fleming, Kan., made the same demand, but about half of the men went back to work yesterday morning. It is the general opinion that a strike will be inaugurated within a week or ten days.

Idle for Lack of Coke or Ore.

(By Associated Press.) ASHLAND, Ky., May 3.—The blast furnace of the Norton Iron Works has been compelled to shut down for lack of coke, and 200 men are idle. It is feared that the coke and ore points attempt to work today they will be ejected. The steady miners are reported ready to join the strike.

N. P. Miners Strike.

(By Associated Press.) TACOMA, Wash., May 3.—The miners in the Northern Pacific Railway mines, at Roslyn, voted to reject a 25 per cent. reduction in wages by striking. After offering to accept a reduction of 10 per cent., and being refused, the miners took their tools from the mine and quit work.

TROOPS TO BE CALLED OUT.

Strikers Make Trouble Along the Mesaba Range.

(By Associated Press.) DULUTH, Minn., May 3.—Gov. Nelson has authorized the Sheriff of St. Louis County to call out the militia to suppress disorder reported among the strikers on the Mesaba Range. Before issuing the order he sent the Adjutant-General to the Mesaba Range to investigate the situation and to decide if it was necessary.

The Adjutant-General will be here in the morning, and will have general information of the situation of the strikers, and will go to the range with the militia. The most critical situation is at Mountain Iron.

The crowd of strikers which visited there yesterday and drove the men at the Radburn and Mountain Iron mines from work last evening concealed in the woods about half a mile from the village planning a surprise.

COMPARED TO COXEY'S ARMY.

Rev. Mr. Patterson and His Followers Denounced in Court.

Central Park Baptist Church

Troubles Reviewed in Detail.

Judge Gildersleeve, of the Superior Court, to-day heard arguments on his order requiring Rev. C. Venton Patterson to show cause why a temporary injunction issued last Friday, restraining him and his followers from holding services in the Central Park Baptist Church, 235 East Eighty-third street, should not be made permanent.

The trouble between Pastor Patterson and some of the members of his flock have extended over considerable time and attracted much attention.

The opposition to Rev. Mr. Patterson is led by Messrs. Frazer and Spooner. Last week they secured from Justice McKoon in the Seventh District Court an order directing the pastor to vacate the temporary injunction against the church.

Rev. Mr. Patterson was represented to-day by Lawyer Henry S. Gibbs and his opponents by ex-Judge Langbein. The lawyers went at length into the troubles of the church, which it seems began months ago, and the other, which he claimed were largely in the minority, to the regular army.

Judge Gildersleeve took the papers, which contained many voluminous affidavits, and reserved decision. Justice McKoon then rendered his decision in favor of the petitioner in the case of the Central Park Baptist Church, which he claimed were largely in the minority, to the regular army.

As the petitioners were left in peaceable possession of the church property and of the services of the church, the decision was elected and the entry of the defendants on the following Sunday was to the possession of the church property and of the services of the church.

COXEYITE MINSTRELS.

They Give Entertainments at the Camp in Washington.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 3.—Gen. Coxey, of the Commonwealth, spent most of the morning trying, without result, to secure the Ivy City racing grounds, on the outskirts of the city, wherein to pitch his tents.

Meanwhile the Commonwealthers in their military camp by the James Creek Canal, which is more than a sewer, are endeavoring to make themselves comfortable. There are several tents pitched on the ground, and today they gave a minstrel entertainment. Descriptions from the ranks are being furnished to the press.

The District Attorney and lawyers for the defense are summoning witnesses to-day for the trial of Coxey, Browne and Jones to-morrow.
